

Ex 1350/2023 Case is advanced by the Learned Counsel for D.Hr and hence matter is taken up for today's board. Counsel for D.Hr present. Learned counsel Sri M.N.S files vakalath for J.Dr no.1 to 5. D.Hr no.1 to 7 present. J.Dr no.1 to 12 present. Counsel for both parties present and submitted that dispute between the parties is settled and as per settlement both parties are going to files Joint compromise petition U/o 23 rule 3 r/s 151 of CPC . Heard the counsel for both parties on compromise petition. Both parties were inquired regarding compromise petition. On inquiry both parties submitted that upon intervention of their well wishers they got settled the dispute and as per settlement they filed joint compromise petition. Both parties further submitted that they gone through the contents of said compromise petition and put their signatures voluntarily thereon without any compulsion or coercion. Hence, Joint compromise petition is hereby accepted and allowed. Accordingly execution petition is closed as settled.

Nature of Disposal

: ALLOWED OTHERWISE

Disposal Date

: 08-01-2024