

Both the parties are present.

Their respective advocates are also present.

Both filed joint memo stating that the Judgment Debtor has paid Rs.95,700/- out of which Rs.25,000/- was paid at the time of attachment of the movables and remaining amount of Rs.70,700/- was paid as full and final settlement in favor of Decree Holder.

Even Decree Holder acknowledges the receipt of the same.

Both submitted that In view of the joint memo filed by the both the parties the execution petition may be disposed in accordance with the law.

Heard both sides.

The contents of the joint memo are read over to the parties. They admit the compromise entered in between them is fair, genuine, voluntary and without any force. Therefore, In view of the submissions of both the parties the joint memo filed by both the parties is hereby taken on record.

In view of the joint memo the above execution petition is dismissed as decree is fully satisfied before the daily Lokadalath.

IX A.C.C. & S.J., Bengaluru.