

The Counsel for decree-holder is present and prays time.

In judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Civil Appeal Nos. 3640-3642 of 2025 in case of Peruyammal (Dead Through Lrs.) -Vs- V. Rajamani and another etc., dated: 06.03.2025, it is held that, "The executing court must dispose of the execution proceedings within six months from the date of filing, which may be extended only by recording reasons in writing for such delay".

In view of above said judgment, the decree holder has not taken effective steps. Prayer of Counsel for decree-holder is rejected. There are no grounds to proceed further.

Hence, this petition is dismissed for default and non prosecution.
