

Lok-adalath Bench No.109/2024.

Case called before lok-adalath.

Decree holder and Counsel are present.

With due intervention of conciliators, matter settled.

Ld. Counsel for the Decree holder has submitted that the Judgment debtor has handed over the physical possession of schedule property as per the judgment and decree, hence, arrived at a settlement with Judgment debtor to claim the decretal amount at later stage.

Accordingly, decree Holder has filed a memo of withdrawal of the execution petition with a liberty to initiate fresh execution proceedings for claiming the amount as decreed by this court. There is no legal impediment to allow the memo. Being satisfied that the settlement is voluntary and lawful, this Lok Adalath bench proceed to pass the following :

ORDER

Memo is allowed.

Consequently, this Execution petition is disposed with a liberty to the DHR to initiate fresh execution proceedings against the JDR for decreetal claim amount.
