

27-09-2023

Ex. 733-2023

DHR no.1 to 4 are present.
They have filed joint affidavit.

Their learned advocate on record is also present. He files a memo with death certificate of claimant no.6(a) in LAC 296/1999 by name Smt. R. Leelamma (Mother of the present DHRs).

The DHR no.1 & 2 submit in the said joint affidavit that their share of amounts in deposit may be released in favour of the DHR no.3 and that they are not claiming their share.

I have verified the identity of DHR No.1 to 4 by perusing their Aadhar cards, PAN cards produced by them and I am satisfied about their identity.

In view of the said joint affidavit the DHR No.3 – Sri. A. subramanyam is entitled to 75% of Rs.66,30,104/- which comes to Rs.49,72,578/-; and DHR No.4 – Smt. Sridevi is entitled to 25% of Rs.66,30,104/- which comes to Rs.16,57,526/-.

Office to release award
amount of Rs.49,72,578/- in favour of DHR No.3 – Sri. A. Subramanyam to his SB account
No.50100377038942 on HDFC
Bank, IFSC Code
HDFC0001037, Hoskote Branch, Hoskote .

Office to release award
amount of Rs.16,57,526/- in favour of DHR No.4 – Smt. Sridevi to her SB account No.74480100010672
on Bank of Baroda, IFSC Code
BARB0VJSHLB, Shimoga L B S
Nagar Branch, Shimoga.

EP closed. EFS entered.

C/c II Addl. City Civil Sessions Judge and Spl Judge, City Civil Court Bengaluru.