

EX 773/2023

Case called out.

Learned counsel for DHR

Sri LM present.

Learned counsel for JDR Sri

OBP present.

Both parties present.

Call on later for reporting settlement.

(15.11.2024)

XXXIX ACC & SJ, Bengaluru

Matter taken before daily lok Adalath before open court.

Either side parties jointly filed memorandum of compromise petition U/o XXIII Rule 3 of CPC in the instant execution proceedings along with the signature of the consenting witnesses in the compromise petition.

Perused materials on record.

Call on later for inquiry.

(15.11.2024)

XXXIX ACC & SJ, Bengaluru

Either side parties and respective counsels who are present before daily lok adalath have filed memorandum of compromise petition U/o XXIII R 3 CPC jointly praying the court to accept the instant execution petition.

Perused, heard. In view of the compromise held amongst the parties as the said compromise is not lawful and against to the public policy, both parties permitted to arrive at a compromise and recitals of the compromise are read over and explained the terms to the above parties. They admit to the said terms as true, correct and genuine. Accordingly, the terms of the compromise petition are hereby recorded in the tunes of compromise petition, akin to this said parties have produced Aadhaar cards issued by competent authority so as Unique Identification Authority of India in furtherance to identification and proof of address and it appears that the said compromise is lawful and there is no conflict of interest furthermore the terms are not against to the public policy. In light of which this court proceeds to pass following:

ORDER

The compromise petition filed U/o XXIII Rule 3 CPC is hereby allowed. Accordingly the terms of the said compromise petition are hereby accepted.

Accordingly matter stands disposed off before daily lokadalath proceedings.

(15.11.2024)

XXXIX ACC & SJ, Bengaluru